

Course title International Economic Law		ECTS code
Name of unit administrating study Faculty of Law and Administration
Studies
Field of study	Type	Form
Polish and International Legal Studies Programme	Diploma programme (1st and 2nd tier studies)
Teaching staff Dr hab Maciej Nyka
Forms of classes, the realization and number of hours		ECTS credits
A. Forms of classes, in accordance with the UG Rector's regulations
B. The realization of activities
C. Number of hours 20
The academic cycle II year 3 semester
Type of course		Language of instruction
Teaching methods Lecture, classroom discussion, debriefing		Form and method of assessment and basic criteria for evaluation or examination requirements
		A. Final evaluation, in accordance with the UG study regulations exam
		B. Assessment methods Essay, oral exam,
		C. The basic criteria for evaluation or exam requirements Each student has option of choosing either writing an essay and presenting the content of it for a grade, with question being asked by all the participants and the lecturer or taking an oral exam. The results are evaluated basing on the following percentage scale: A (5,0) - 91% and more B (4,5) - 81% -90% C (4,0) - 71% - 80% D (3,5) - 61%-70% E (3,0) - 51%-60% Failed (2,0) - 50% or less
D. Method of verification of the established effects of education
Required courses and introductory requirements Admittance to the PILSP. All foreign incoming Erasmus law students are admitted to the PILSP at the Faculty of Law and Administration. Other students wishing to follow PILSP courses need to apply (please see PILSP Regulations).
Aims of education The goal of the course is to present to the students basics of public international economic law system

Course contents

History of the international economic law The Bretton Woods System GATT/WTO and international trade in goods WTO and the trade in services International protection of Intellectual Property Rights World Bank and its goals in the XXI century International Monetary Found and its modern challenges The environmental challenges to the international economic law The human rights challenges to the international economic law

Bibliography of literature
A. Literature required to pass the course

A.F. Lowenfeld International Economic Law (2 ed.) Oxford University Press New York 2008

B. Extracurricular readings

P. van den Bossche, D. Prevost Essentials of WTO Law Cambridge 2016

G. Cook A Digest of WTO Jurisprudence on Public International Law Concepts and Principles Cambridge 2015

The learning outcomes (for the field of study and specialization)
Knowledge

Student knows and is able to characterise the system of international economic law. Knows basic institutions and interactions within this branch of law.

Skills

Student is able to solve simple cases on the base of his knowledge of international economic law

Social competence

Student is aware of the role of international economic law in international relations. Student is aware of the links between international economic law and human rights protection or the protection of the environment.

Contact

maciejnyka@prawo.ug.edu.pl