

Course title Polish and International Criminal Law and Procedure		ECTS code
Name of unit administrating study Faculty of Law and Administration
Studies
Field of study	Type	Form
Polish and International Legal Studies Programme	Diploma programme (1st and 2nd tier studies)
Teaching staff dr hab. Woźniewski Krzysztof, prof. UG dr Paweł Petasz
Forms of classes, the realization and number of hours		ECTS credits
A. Forms of classes, in accordance with the UG Rector's regulations Lecture
B. The realization of activities
C. Number of hours 20
The academic cycle summer semester
Type of course		Language of instruction English
Teaching methods conversational lecture, problem lecture, lecture with multimedia presentation		Form and method of assessment and basic criteria for evaluation or examination requirements
		A. Final evaluation, in accordance with the UG study regulations Exam
		B. Assessment methods
		C. The basic criteria for evaluation or exam requirements An oral presentation counting for at least 40% of the final mark and examination in the form of a written test of choice counting for 60% of the final mark. The results are evaluated basing on the following percentage scale: A (5,0) - 91% and more; B (4,5) - 81% - 90%; C (4,0) - 71% - 80%; D (3,5) - 61% - 70%; E (3,0) - 51% - 60%; Failed (2,0) - 50% or less.
D. Method of verification of the established effects of education
Required courses and introductory requirements
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Admittance to the PILSP. All foreign incoming Erasmus law students are admitted to the PILSP at the Faculty of Law and Administration. Other students wishing to follow PILSP courses need to apply (please see PILSP Regulations). Command of English language on the level of at least B2 (C1 or higher is recommended).
Aims of education The course is a basic introduction to the general issues and principles of Polish and international criminal law and criminal procedure.
Course contents
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> The concept of criminal law. Types of criminal law. The concept of crime. Offender. The rules of criminal law. The history of criminal law.

7. Types of penalties.
8. Selected crimes.
9. The concept, sources, model and principles of criminal proceedings
10. Jurisdiction in Criminal law.
11. Participants.
12. Premises in criminal proceedings.
13. Evidences. Arrest and other means of ensuring proper course of proceedings.
14. Preparatory proceeding.
15. Proceedings before the court of first instance.
16. Appellate Proceedings.
17. Extraordinary proceedings.
18. International cooperation.

Bibliography of literature

A. Literature required to pass the course

Polish Criminal Code 1997

Code of Polish Criminal Procedure 1997

B. Extracurricular readings

P. Wiliński, Chapter 6: Criminal Procedure in: Handbook of Polish Law, Warszawa-Bielsko-Biała 2011

S. Frankowski, Introduction to Polish Law, Kraków 2005

J. Jurewicz, K. Indeki, The Key Issues of Polish penal law, Łódź 2014

W. Wróbel, Criminal code, Warszawa 2014

The learning outcomes (for the field of study and specialization)

Knowledge

The student lists the basic features of Polish criminal law and criminal law proceedings. She or he can name and define the basic institutions and procedures in Polish and International criminal law.

Skills

By applying the Criminal Code and Code of Criminal Proceedings the student is able to assess and solve simple criminal cases individually and independently.

Social competence

The student becomes sensitive to the complexity of criminal law and criminal proceedings issues and the role of a lawyer in the framework of protection of human rights. As an effect she or he is more willing and responsible in taking positions in victims or defendants' rights debates.

Contact

Dr hab. Krzysztof Woźniewski, prof. UG, Department of Criminal Procedure and Criminalistics, kwozniewski@prawo.ug.edu.pl
Dr Paweł Petasz, Department of Material Criminal Law and Criminology, pawel.petasz@ug.edu.pl