

Janusz Gilas

POLISH TEXTBOOK OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

The article discusses all Polish textbooks of international law in terms of the methodological assumptions adopted there. It is proposed to develop a separate textbooks for administrative studies, which would broadly take into account international administrative law, as well as textbooks for politicians, which would include treaty, judicial and diplomatic practice in Poland. It is also suggested that the textbook should be prepared in cooperation with lawyers from neighboring countries.